Dear Superintendent:

SUBJ: 2017 MARINE CORPS JUNIOR RESERVE OFFICER'S TRAINING CORPS
(MCJROTC) INSTRUCTOR PAY INCREASE

Effective 1 January 2017, MCJROTC Instructors received a 2.1 percent increase to their basic pay. In addition to the basic pay increase, they also received increases to their other minimum instructor pay (MIP) entitlements.

In accordance with the Department of Defense Instruction 1205.13, the instructor's MIP entitlements consists of the following:

- Basic Pay
- Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS)
- Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH), based upon geographic location of the Instructor's school, the grade/rank of the Instructor and dependent eligibility (spouse/children)
- Clothing Allowance (enlisted personnel only)
- Cost-of-Living Allowance (COLA) based upon the Instructor's grade/rank and dependent eligibility (spouse/children)

These increases will be reflected in the monthly statement received by school district payroll offices as a lump sum amount. It is also shown in the Instructor's monthly statement, listed by their MIP entitlements.

I highly recommend a copy of this letter, be forwarded to your payroll department. If you require additional information concerning entitlements, contact Ms. Nancy Turner, Marine Corps JROTC Military Pay Analyst, at 703-784-3740, nancy.b.turner@usmc.mil.

Sincerely,

R. G. OLTMAN
